

Doosan Moxy AS develops, manufactures and markets articulated dump trucks for world markets. The factory is located in Elnesvågen, 20 km north of Molde and has 120 skilled workers and a building of 20,000 m². From 2009 Moxy was a part of the international construction machinery manufacturer, Doosan. With locations in 33 countries, Doosan offered entry into several new markets. The company has high ambitions and a strong focus on people development and technology.

The Development department is searching for:

Design Engineers - Mechanical

Tasks

- Generate design concept with strong focus on costs and efficient production
- Develop quality-related technical solutions to the market
- Design of new models and components.
- Prepare estimates of "unique" and common designs
- Participate in building and testing of prototypes
- Develop and maintain drawings, structures and other necessary documentation

Technical Engineer - Electronics

Tasks

- Develop, document, create electrical systems integral to our product.
- Participate in decisions about the placement of electrical components.
- Participate in building and testing of prototypes
- Develop and maintain drawings, structures and other necessary documentation

Documentation Engineer - Technical Documentation

Tasks

- Preparation and maintenance of technical documentation, user manuals, part-books, maintenance manuals on new and former models

For all positions apply:

- Good knowledge of CAD systems
- At least 5 years experience from mechanical engineering
- Knowledge and regular use of common PC based IT systems
- Excellent general mechanical talent.
- Approved Engineer education from university/college level.
- Excellent problem solving methodology
- Good team player
- Maintain contact and follow up customers and suppliers within the assigned tasks
- Collaboration with other development centers in the Doosan system

Positions report to the R&D Manager and will also have a close cooperation with all departments within the company.

For questions, contact R&D Manager, Joran Søbstad tel +47 71 26 85 37, mobile 959 33 633

Application to ivar.arne.gjeitnes@doosan.com by January 15th

